Special Education Program

The Adaptive Learning Division offers a Special Education Program that prepares you for a rewarding career as a paraprofessional in schools, rehabilitation facilities, human service organization, community centers, after-school programs or care giving facilities. By enrolling in Foothill's Special Education Program, you will have the opportunity to study disability and special education topics, including the law, psychological aspects, technology, Attention Deficit Disorder, and other topics. Students can choose to earn the program's Associate in Arts Degree (A.A.), paraprofessional Certificate of Achievement or professional growth. Classes are affordable. Financial Aid is available for those who qualify.
