ASFC Campus Council – Foothill's Student Government

Become a member of the Associated Students of Foothill College (ASFC) by purchasing an OwlCard. The goal of the Campus Council is to give a voice to all Foothill students, enabling them to become an integral part of the college community. The council's major responsibilities include annual elections; appointing officers to campuswide committees; sharing governance in the development of Foothill College policies and annual budget; adopting and overseeing use of an annual ASFC budget; providing leadership for advocacy efforts on campus and at the state level; allocating funds for new programs and projects; granting student club charters; and providing and administering a program of activities and services for students, including College Hour weekly events, workshops, conferences and retreats.

Students with a minimum 2.0 grade point average (GPA), who are enrolled in at least eight units each quarter and have an OwlCard are eligible to join Campus Council. Campus Council voting members are required to enroll in the CNSL 86: Student Leadership class. Applications are available in the ASFC, Student Activities and Student Government offices.

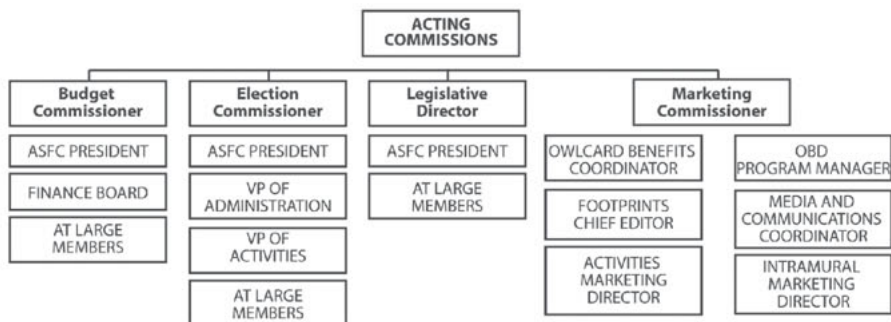

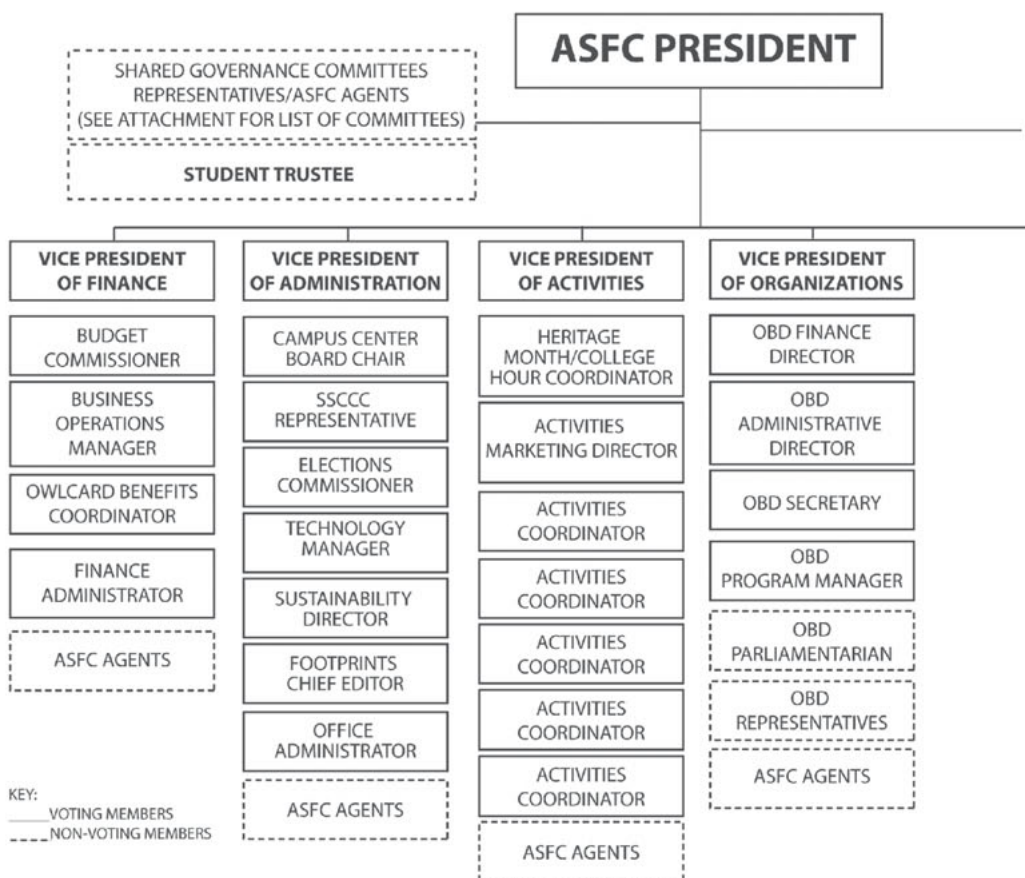

The weekly meetings of Campus Council are open to all students, faculty, staff and the public. Meetings are Thursdays at 1:30 p.m. in the Toyon Room. Attend a meeting, see student leadership in action and find out how to earn leadership units; increase university transfer, career and internship options; learn to work collaboratively; and advocate student rights. Learn or enhance political, finance, event coordinating, marketing, recruitment, time management, prioritizing and communication skills. In addition to board positions, non-voting agent positions are available.

Campus Council Positions

Student officers manage the business of Campus Council representing a variety of ages, backgrounds, interests and academic majors. Some have prior experience in student government; others are discovering leadership potential for the first time. Each Campus Council member gains valuable experience through exposure to the variety of requests and programs addressed by the council. Non-voting agent positions are available.

Organizations Board of Directors

All club members are linked to the Organizations Board of Directors (OBD) Club Council, to whose weekly meetings each active club sends a voting representative. Meetings are Tuesdays at noon. The primary function of the OBD is to provide funding and an effective, organized and fair policy so all clubs have the opportunity to thrive. OBD also sponsors a quarterly Club Day and information and recruitment event. All official club paperwork for funding and events is processed at OBD meetings and due completed by Tuesdays at 11 a.m.

Campus Clubs

Campus clubs reflect a variety of interests of the past and current student body. Typically they focus on careers, education, multicultural diversity, religion, recreation, sports, crafts, politics, service and social events. This list includes all clubs that have ever existed at Foothill College. For a weekly updated roster that lists active clubs, contact Student Activities Office.

Ahmed Mostafa

"Before the Wright Brothers, human flight was just a dream. The duo's visionary thinking and willingness to move forward eventually conquered flight for mankind. Anything is possible; all you need is confidence, the ability to think outside of the box, and the will to nurture your vision until it becomes reality. You can then live a life without limitations."

Ahmed Mostafa served Foothill as ASFC activities marketing director (Fall 2008), Muslim Student Association president (2008–2009), student representative to the Foothill-De Anza Chancellor's Advisory Committee (2009-2010) and ASFC president (2009-2010).

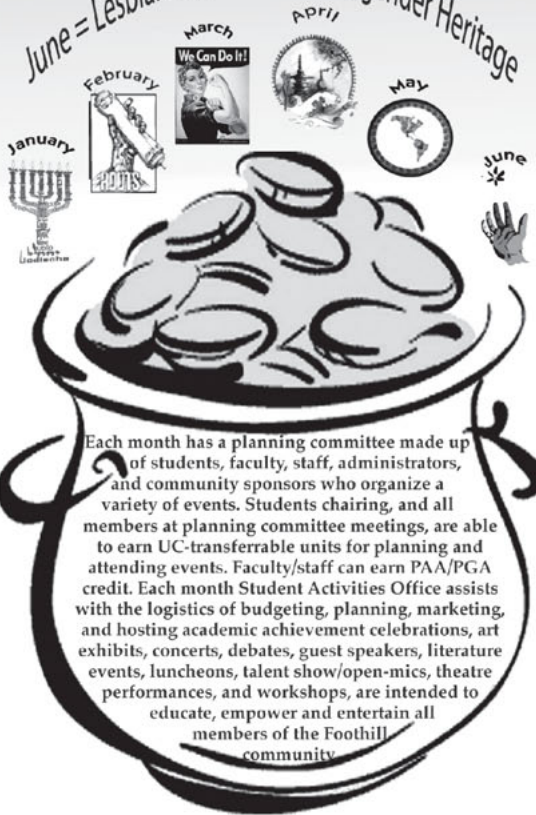

An alum of Woodside High School in Redwood City, he earned the Foothill College associate degree in political science. He plans to transfer to a University of California campus, and later, pursue elected office.

Andreas Santucci

A member of the Foothill College Honors Institute and award-winning Foothill Speech & Debate Team, Andreas Santucci began his Foothill experience as a student in the Middle College Program, and went on to tutor statistics students and participate in intercollegiate athletics. This year, while competing on behalf of Foothill College at the state championship, he was named an All-American diver. Prior to his successful college-level diving experience, he competed in springboard diving at Los Altos High School, ultimately ranking fourth in the Central Coast Section Championships and earning his team's most valuable player award. His aquatics career was preceded by years of national-level gymnastics competition.

He was chosen to be the student speaker for the Foothill's 50th Annual Commencement Ceremony. He earned Foothill associate degrees in communication studies and economics, and will transfer to the University of California, Berkeley, this fall. Upon completion of a bachelor's degree, his goal is to attend law school.

Ashley Chan

“Volunteering on and off campus, and working as a student employee in the Student Activities and Student Accounts offices has helped me feel a sense of belonging to my college and to the community. I’ve always been excited to learn more about the talents and abilities I have been blessed with. When I succeed, it builds my confidence. I then take that energy and use it to succeed in other areas of my life. My motto is ‘seize every opportunity.’”

A talented pianist who has performed at many ASFC events as well as her church, Ashley Chan served Foothill College as a Math My Way assistant (2009), Pass the Torch team leader (2009), chairwoman of the ASFC By-Law Review Committee (2010), ASFC ambassador (2008–2010), vice president of ASFC Administration Board (2009–2010) and Academic Senate liaison (2009–2010).

Originally from Hong Kong, China, she earned two Foothill College associate in arts degrees, one in economics and one in communication studies. She plans to transfer to New York University to complete a bachelor’s degree in economics. She intends to pursue a career working with non-governmental organizations and the World Bank.

Jessica Hawkins

“Being a leader to me is very important. My leadership journey has evolved and allowed me to experience an authentic sense of family at Foothill. I certainly didn’t think this level of support and connectedness would await me at a ‘commuter school’, but the truth is I’m a very real member of the Foothill family. I’m most proud of my ability to keep my fellow students excited about and engaged in serving on the college’s ASFC Activities Board. I participated in the Foothill Leadership Program and am proud to report that my experience in the program far exceeded my expectations.”

A Foothill honors scholar, Jessica Hawkins served as the Foothill College ASFC activities coordinator (2008–2009), vice president of activities (2009–2010), and Pass the Torch Program English tutor.

A graduate of Carlmont High School in Belmont, she plans to transfer to UC Berkeley to complete a bachelor’s degree in media studies. She intends to pursue a career in business.

Hagar Memlis

“Leadership is something you do from your heart. It benefits you while also allowing you to touch the lives of others. God has opened many doors for me in the U.S. and especially at Foothill College. I feel so blessed and honored to be a part of the Foothill family.”

A member of the Foothill College Women’s Tennis Team (2008–2009), Hagar Memlis has served Foothill College as president of Jews, Israelis & Friends at Foothill (2009–2010), as Jewish History Month Planning Committee co-chairwoman (2010) and as a dedicated committee member of Women’s History Month Planning Committee (2010).

Originally from Israel, she earned two Foothill College associate in arts degrees, one in law and society and the other in sociology. She transferred to Lesley University - Cambridge, Massachusetts to complete a law degree. She intends to become a lawyer.

KFJC College Radio Station

KFJC 89.7 FM is the Foothill College non-commercial, educational FM radio station. KFJC serves as a practical broadcast training facility for Foothill students. It offers a variety of alternative entertainment and information for the greater Bay Area. KFJC's staff of 80 to 100 enrolled student-volunteers get hands-on experience operating the station's 13 departments, 24 hours a day, year-round, to a weekly audience of 35,000 listeners. Many station alumni have used their KFJC experience to obtain jobs in broadcasting or related industries. The quality of KFJC's broadcast training and operation has received recognition from the Intercollegiate Broadcast System, a national organization of college radio stations, and The Gavin Report, a national music industry journal. A variety of music is featured, including blues, jazz, new age, reggae, surf, country, classical and soundtrack. Exposure is also given to local artists and experimental music that does not receive air play on commercial stations. The station's informational programming includes campus and community public service announcements, entertainment listings, live interview programs, listener call-in talk shows, community bulletin boards, and short, public affairs feature stories. KFJC also broadcasts live play-by-play coverage of select Foothill Owls sporting events.

Tai Myers

"If you're a new Foothill student, here's my advice: Meet early and often with a Foothill counselor! Your counselor will work with you to make sure that you're taking the correct classes to meet your educational goal. Frequent meetings with your counselor will also give you the confidence to know that you're not wasting the precious resources of time and money by taking unnecessary classes.

I also encourage you to take your college experience at Foothill seriously—this is your future we're talking about. Stay focused, be involved with on-campus student life, invest in your community while enhancing your resume and college application with paid or leadership/volunteer positions, and remember that it's never too late for a second chance to improve your life." The recipient of the 2009 Fine Arts African American Achievement Award and Lorraine Hansberry Award, Tai served Foothill as president of the Brother to Brother (2007-2008), ASFC senator (2008-2009), Black History Month Planning Committee member (2009), and Organizations Board of Directors representative (2009-2010).

An alum of Mountain View High School, he intends to complete a bachelor's degree at the University of Central Florida. Upon completion of his degree, his goal is to travel extensively as a graphic artist, see the world and meet interesting people.
