DEPENDENT STUDENT VERIFICATION WORKSHEET

To receive financial aid, you must complete a process called "Verification." Verification requires you to submit copies of your and your parent(s)' financial documents (signed copy of Federal income tax returns) and provide other information and documents to your college Financial Aid Office. After a comparison of information on these forms and documents and the information on the FAFSA (Free Application for Federal Student Aid), you may need to make corrections using your SAR, or your college may send corrections electronically.

What you should do:

- Fill out all sections of this form and return it to the Financial Aid Office.
- Submit all other required documents to the Financial Aid Office.
- Complete this process as soon as possible so that your financial aid won't be delayed.
- If you have any questions about filling out this worksheet, talk to someone in the Financial Aid Office.

A. Family Information (for persons included in your parents' household)

List the people your parent(s) will support between July 1, 2008 and June 30, 2009. Include yourself, your parent(s) (including stepparent) even if you don't live with your parents, and your parent(s)' dependent children, even if they don't live with your parent(s), IF (a) your parent(s) will provide more than half of their support from July 1, 2008 through June 30, 2009, OR (b) they would be required to give parental information when applying for Federal Student Aid). Include other people as part of your household only if they now live with your parent(s) and your parents provide more than half of their support AND will continue to provide more than half of their support from July 1, 2008 through June 30, 2009.

Write the names of all household members. Also, write in the name of the college for any household member, excluding your parent(s), who will be attending college at least half-time between July 1, 2008 and June 30, 2009, and will be enrolled in a degree, diploma or certificate program. If you need more space, attach a separate page.

California Information Privacy Act

State and federal laws protect an individual's right to privacy regarding information pertaining to oneself. The California Information Practices Act of 1977 requires the following information be provided to financial aid applicants who are asked to supply information about themselves. The principal purpose for requesting information on this form is to determine your eligibility for financial aid. The Chancellor's Office policy and the policy of the community college to which you are applying for aid authorize maintenance of this information. Failure to provide such information will delay and may even prevent your receipt of financial assistance. This form's information may be transmitted to other state agencies and the federal government if required by law. Individuals have the right of access to records established from information furnished on this form as it pertains to them.

The officials responsible for maintaining the information contained on this form are the financial aid administrators at the institutions to which you are applying for financial aid. The SSN may be used to verify your identity under record keeping systems established prior to January 1, 1975. If your college requires you to provide an SSN and you have questions, you should ask the financial aid officer at your college for further information. The Chancellor's Office and the California community colleges, in compliance with federal and state laws, do not discriminate on the basis of race, religion, color, national origin, gender, age, disability, medical condition, sexual orientation, domestic partnership or any other legally protected basis. Inquiries regarding these policies may be directed to the financial aid office of the college to which you are applying.
