 - Board approval

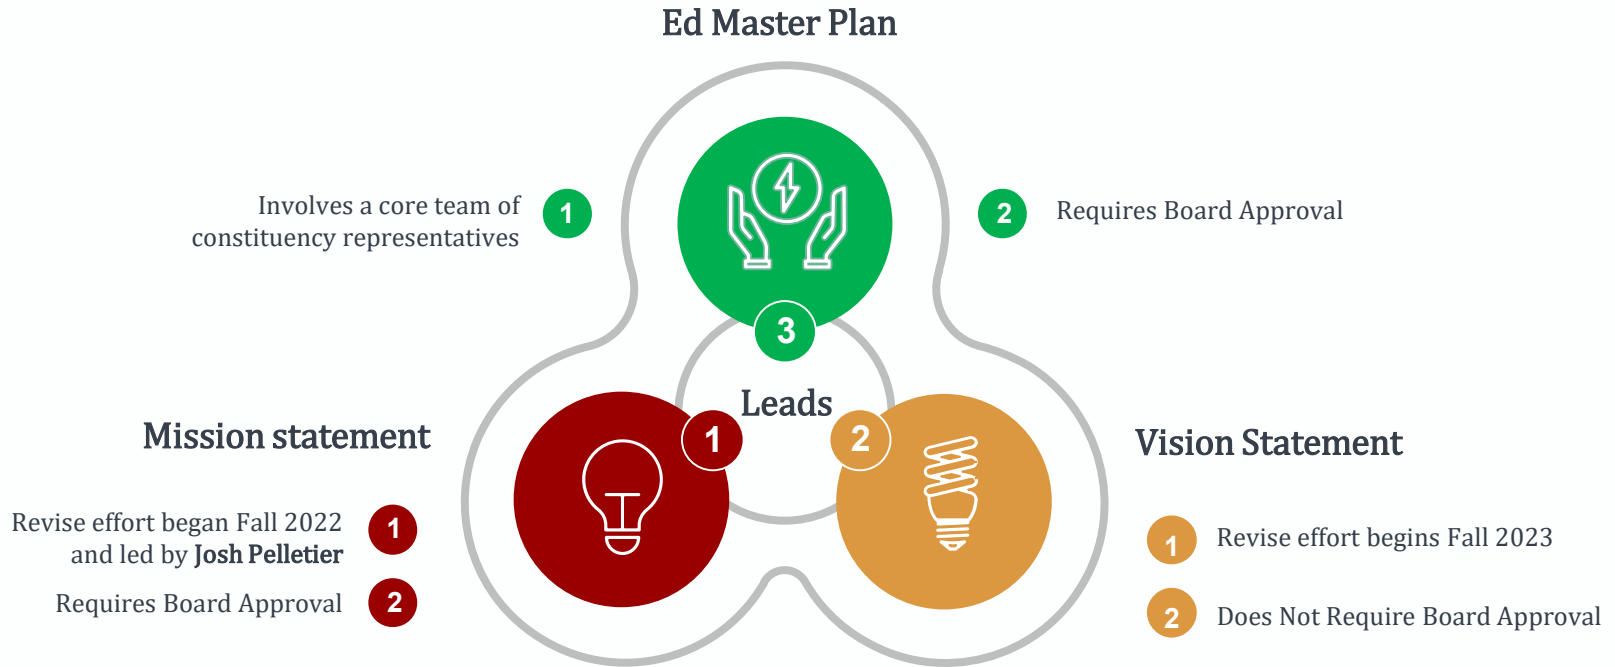

Foothill 2030 is...

Foothill 2030
communicates
“why Foothill”

- Mission: What we do
- Vision: What we aspire to
- Ed Master Plan: How we plan to get there (and know we are making progress)

Foothill 2030

Part of the college planning cycle involving a regular review of the mission statement, vision statement, and the educational master plan

Foothill 2030 is...

- Reflecting on what we are already doing, what we are doing well, then building on it
- Anticipating how to support students for as long as they need or want to be at Foothill especially as student needs and issues evolve during this decade

It's about the people!

- Mission and Vision are important but it is ultimately also about how people fit into the process itself.
- Guiding others through this process
- Managing fears and concerns

We are all in!

- Process doesn't happen around you
- Process will happen by you and through your engagement
- Should become a part of how you do your work

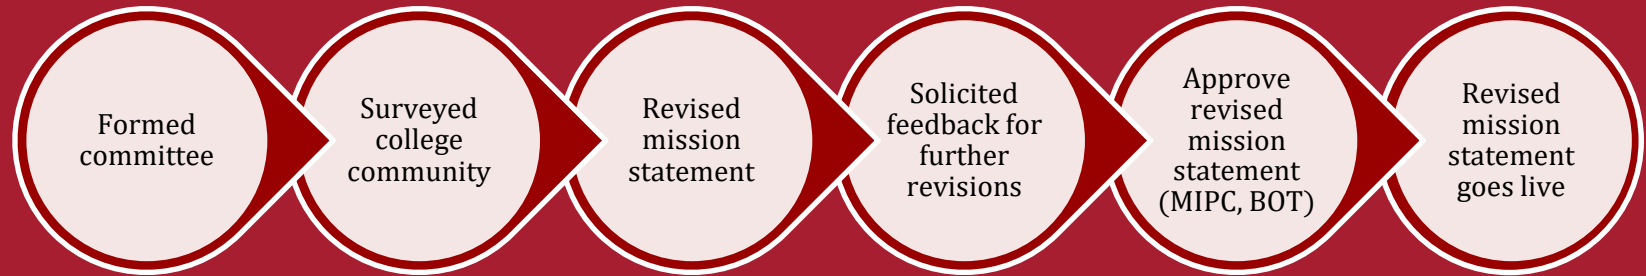

Foothill 2030 Goal

- Develop community with shared purpose
- Increase belonging by providing shared commitment, relationships, and responsibility
