Location: Library Quad FREE ADMISSION

Friday, May 5

Film Festival I: Zapatista

The film, Zapatista, is set in Chiapas, Mexico, in an area that was overrun by Zapatista soldiers. The North American Free Trade Agreement had come into effect, which led to the Zapatista uprising. Armed with sticks and words against a First World military, 8,000 Zapatistas fought 75,000 federal troops to a standstill. It's an inspiring first-hand account of a struggle that will challenge the way you think about the world.

Free refreshments.

Time: 6-9 p.m.

Location: Appreciation Hall (Room 1501) FREE ADMISSION

Week Two: May 8-12

Monday, May 8

Film Festival II: Culture Clash Presents: A Bowl of Beings

Culture Clash Presents: A Bowl of Beings is a revolutionary political comedy focusing on the Chicano movement of the 1990's with themes that remain current. The movie presents a collection of biting sketches on the Chicano experience in America, from the arrival of Columbus to the contemporary movie Stand and Deliver.

Free refreshments

Time: Noon-2 p.m.

Location: Appreciation Hall (Room 1501) FREE ADMISSION

Tuesday, May 9

Immigrant Rights Lecture Series I: Dolores Huerta

Immigrant rights activist Dolores Huerta will discuss how the labor movement improved health care and education for farm workers. As an advocate for farm workers' rights, she participates in non-violent civil disobedience activities and strikes. She will discuss issues of personal and social responsibility, safe sex, drugs and alcohol. The mission of her foundation is to build active communities working for fair and equal access to health care, housing, education, jobs, civic participation and economic resources for communities in need. Co-sponsored by the Foothill Health Services Office.

Time: Lecture, 11 a.m.-Noon;
Q&A and Reception, Noon-1 p.m.

Location: Library Quad Tent FREE ADMISSION

Wednesday, May 10

Chicano Theater & Drama Workshop Featuring HeadRush

The guerilla performance crew HeadRush is made up of three educators from Oakland—Rosa Gonzalez, SimUn Hanukai and Luis "Xago" Juarez. The trio came together to inspire social action in working-class communities through guerrilla-style performances. HeadRush combines elements of Chicano theater and spoken word to create a unique rush of psycho-political head-trips and satirical commentary. HeadRush will present a short skit and will work with students to demonstrate how to empower their communities through performance art and workshops.

Time: Noon-1 p.m. (College Hour)

Location: Appreciation Hall (Room 1501) FREE ADMISSION

Thursday, May 11

Fútbol (Soccer) Mini World Cup

Fútbol (soccer) is the world's most popular sport. Participate in festivities commemorating the 2006 World Cup in Germany. Students are invited to wear their favorite team's jersey or T-shirt. All ability levels are invited to play. You will also have the opportunity to sign up for the tournament if you are not already on a team. The tournament dates are May 19, 26 and June 2.

Time: 11:30 a.m.-2 p.m.

Location: Library Quad FREE ADMISSION

Friday, May 12

A Candlelight Tribute to Revolution

Honor the memory of influential revolutionaries from all cultures by uniting with other students for a common cause. The tribute will include the opportunity to read poetry, sing or perform in memory of the revolutionaries. Social rights activists Kilo Nyasha, Elizabeth "Betita" Martinez and Yuri Kochiyama will empower and educate participants for the purpose of peace and freedom.

Rick Callender, president of the Silicon Valley Chapter of the NAACP will discuss how Latino and African American Communities can come together to build a strong coalition as a foundation for a renewed civil rights struggle. Co-sponsored by the Foothill Business & Social Sciences Division.

Time: 11 a.m.-Noon

Location: Library Quad Tent FREE ADMISSION

Tuesday, May 16

Witty Writer Featuring Lalo Alcaraz

The creator of the nationally syndicated and politically charged Latino comic strip La Cucaracha, Lalo Alcaraz's work is featured daily in the Los Angeles Times, Denver Post and 65 other major newspapers. He began his career drawing editorial cartoons at his college paper at San Diego State University. Today, he is a one-of-a-kind cartoonist, satirist and writer who captures the essence of the country's changing cultural and political landscape like no other. Bringing a fearless sensibility to his political and social commentary, he is a fresh voice whose unabashedly pro-immigrant, progressive stance about the need for a multicultural visibility in the media is long overdue.

Time: Noon-1 p.m.

Location: Appreciation Hall (Room 1501) FREE ADMISSION

Wednesday, May 17

Play JeopardAid!

Your answers could be worth cash for college when you play JeopardAid. Based on the popular game show Jeopardy!, Foothill's JeopardAid is a fun competition that gives students the opportunity to find out about Financial Aid. Sign up for the contest in the Financial Aid Office (Room 1930), e-mail ChenL@foothill.edu or call (650) 949-7376. Co-sponsored by the Foothill Financial Aid Office.

Location: Appreciation Hall (Room 1501) FREE ADMISSION

Thursday, May 18

Cultural Comedy Club Featuring Bill Santiago

Stand-up comedian Bill Santiago is a local entertainer whose high-octane performances are garnering raves from audiences and critics across the country. His routines draw on his Puerto Rican roots but also cross ethnic boundaries with political comedy that's smart, energetic and bold. His parodies of Latino life successfully bridge the cultural divide.

Time: Noon-1 p.m.

Location: Appreciation Hall (Room 1501) FREE ADMISSION

Week Four: May 22-26

Monday, May 22

Immigration Rights Speaker Series III: Law Panel

Bayinaah Jones, director of Institutional Initiatives of the San Jose-Evergreen Community College District, will give a presentation on the DREAM ACT (SB 160) and other key pieces of legislation impacting Latino and other communities.

Friday, May 26

Film Festival III: The Revolution Will NOT Be Televised

A good documentary is about being in the right place at the right time. In 2001, Kim Bartley and Donnacha O'Briain began filming a documentary about Hugo Chavez, the controversial president of Venezuela. As they worked on the documentary, events in Venezuela reached a fever pitch and the duo was able to capture on film a coup from the perspective of the Chavez government. What is clear is that this was a coup orchestrated with the crucial help of the media. Without their support, it would not have been successful. Free refreshments.

Time: 6-9 p.m.

Location: Appreciation Hall (Room 1501) FREE ADMISSION

Week Five: May 29-31

Monday, May 29

Memorial Day observance, campus closed.

Tuesday, May 30

Film Festival IV: El Metro es Para Todos & Filmmaker

This film details the Latino and Korean alliance built in Los Angeles to boycott the removal of routes in LA's metro system of public transportation. The film focuses on the importance of activism in communities, especially among minorities. Filmmaker Huong Nguyen will discuss her experience in and motivations for making the film.

Time: Noon-1 p.m.

Location: Appreciation Hall (Room 1501) FREE ADMISSION

Wednesday, May 31

Closing Ceremony: Cultural Celebration & Meet the Artist Reception

Enjoy the food, Capoiara dancers and LUCHA Market. Meet the artists whose works are on display in the college's Semans Library throughout May. The exhibit, You Are Here: Perspectives on Self, Place & Identity, will be reviewed and the artists will answer audience questions.
