

NATIVE AMERICAN HERITAGE MONTH

NOVEMBER 2019

A TRIBUTE TO TIMELESS TRADITIONS, TEACHINGS & TALENT...

WED
6

College Hour:

Official Native American Heritage Month 2019 Opening Ceremony includes refreshments & entertainment

12 - 1 p.m.
Dining Room, Campus Center, Room 2001

THU
7

Lecture Series I:

Featuring Foothill College Hour Alum and Global Indigenous Conservation Leader Maria Azhounova

9 - 9:50 a.m. & 10 - 10:50 a.m.
Hearthside Lounge, Campus Center, Room 2313

WED
13

College Hour:

Come & Experience the Bay Area's Best Native American Band, Medicine Road!

12 - 1 p.m.
Dining Room, Campus Center, Room 2001

THU
14

Lecture Series II:

Featuring NAHM Co-Founder and Foothill College English Professor Dr. Scott Lankford lecturing on U.S. Poet Laureate Joy Harjo and MMIW

10 - 11:50 a.m.
Hearthside Lounge, Campus Center, Room 2313

WED
20

College Hour:

Highlighting NAHM Co-Founder and recently retired FHDA staff member Paul Aguilar's Live Performance as Native American Performer Paul Eagle

College Hour: 12 - 1 p.m.
Dining Room, Campus Center, Room 2001

THU
21

Lecture Series III:

Featuring Foothill College Alum and Indigenous Youth Activist Daisy Rosalez

9 - 9:50 a.m. & 10 - 10:50 a.m.
Hearthside Lounge, Room 2313

For more information:

foothill.edu/heritage
foothill.edu/events
ortizerin@fhda.edu

