#OwlEra is a hashtag that the football team has been using via social media. Is this the “Owl Era” for Foothill?

Have you seen this ad in the local papers?

Well, we just got news that our undefeated football team, with last weekend's win, is now ranked No. 1 in the division!

The coaches and staff have been working really hard to find their grounding these past few years, and I am so happy for them with this news. Indeed, there's a long road ahead for the team and they are already focused on the next game against Yuba. Nevertheless, want to take this moment to congratulate them.

The student athletes at the Pep Rally last week also asked us to come out for the other team sports. Here's their schedule: <https://foothillowls.com/landing/index>

The week of October 14th is Undocumented Student Action Week. Our college will gather in front of the “DREAMers Mural” that Wednesday and then have a rapid-response training for everyone. The training is a great opportunity to learn about the laws and peaceful response. Faculty: if you could, please consider giving a class credit to encourage students to attend. I plan to attend and learn myself. Even if you cannot make the training, come support undocumented students (and have lunch too) at noon.

I have to remember to bring my new Service Leadership container to eat lunch at the event. By the way, correction: Prof. Gillian Schultz was the cool faculty member who brought her reusable plate/utensils to the lunch at Opening Day. My only comfort in making that error was that someone was reading my communiqué. (So sorry Gillian!)

I'm always proud to see the DREAMers Mural whenever I take my family to a college event at Smithwick Theatre. The last time was the Cinderella show, and the kids loved it.

A big congratulations to the cast and crew of Foothill College Foothill Music Theatre's "Rodgers + Hammerstein's Cinderella." This enchanted, women-empowering musical received 9 Theatre Bay Area Award nominations, and the awards will be on Nov. 4 (<http://bit.ly/2mxGUGl>)!

So proud of Prof. Milissa Carey!

Another amazing faculty member is Prof. Stephanie Chan. As Prof. Scott Lankford said at Opening Day, don't wait until tenure to make a difference! Under Prof. Chan's leadership, the Creative Writing Club has produced the first volume of its literary magazine, Creative Release. See attachment.

Special thanks faculty for your patience with the add-code situation, and for doing the extra work to add students individually. Fall Quarter is a critical quarter for enrollment, so THANK YOU!

Over the summer, a Foothill College student participated in the Santa Clara County Mural fest that has a mural for each of the cities in the county at the Santa Clara County Fairground. One word comes to mind . . . #OwlEra!
