Register for Second Spring

This spring, Foothill is offering you another chance to enroll in spring classes to help you fit college into your busy life! Six-week, accelerated courses are a smart way to earn credits. Many general education, online, prerequisite and career education courses will begin May 22. Registration is underway -- check out the class schedule at foothill.edu/schedule.

Join the Student Journalism Club

The Journalism Club is looking for dedicated writers and editors who are passionate about creating a space for campus dialogue. No prior experience necessary. For questions or to join, email English instructor Brian Lewis at lewisbrian@foothill.edu. Read their publication, "The Script," at foothillscript.com.

Visiting College Representatives

Representatives from several public and private universities will be on campus this month, including UC Irvine and Suffolk University in Boston. In some cases, advance sign-up is required. Check the Transfer Center website for days and times.

Spring Graduation Deadline: June 1

The deadline to petition for spring graduation is June 1. If you intend to graduate, you're responsible for scheduling a required 30-minute petition consultation with a counselor. Appointments may be scheduled online or via phone.

Farmers' Market on Wheels Coming to Campus

Farmers' markets are popping up left and right and Foothill is joining the movement! Beginning this week, a "farmers' market on wheels" will be parked in the Campus Center Plaza (near the bookstore) on Thursdays from 1 p.m.-2 p.m. All of the produce is sourced from local California farms and they accept EBT.

Financial Aid Workshops

There's still time to apply for and receive financial aid. Our free workshops will help you apply and explain the next steps. The general financial aid workshop is May 9, 2-3 p.m. (location TBD). Also on May 9, 2-4 p.m. in Room 8330, staff will be available to help complete FAFSA and Dream Act applications for 2017-18, and answer all your questions.

The Economics Behind Trump's Policies

With so much in the news, it can be hard to understand the details. Economics instructor Brian Evans will explain the logic of some of the current administration's policies in simple, easy-to-understand terms. Hear him speak on May 4 at 12 p.m. in Hearthside Lounge (Room 2313).

Astronomy Lecture: The Sky Event of the Decade

On May 24, astronomy professor Andrew Fraknoi will give a non-technical talk on the rare eclipse of the sun that will be visible throughout the U.S. this summer. The talk will describe how eclipses work, why they are so spectacular, and exactly when and where this eclipse will be visible. Join him in the Smithwick Theatre (Room 1001) at 7 p.m.

Eco Pass

Foothill students are eligible for an Eco Pass/ Clipper Card, which gives you unlimited rides on VTA buses and light rail in Santa Clara County. You must be enrolled in the current quarter and have paid all of your registration fees. To get a card, visit the ASFC Smart Shop (Room 2016).

May is Latina/o Heritage Month

This month we're celebrating Latina/o culture with a series of awesome events around campus. Help us kick things off at the Opening Ceremony on May 3 at 12 p.m. on the Smithwick Theatre Patio. We'll also have excellent speakers and an art and photo exhibit featuring student work. Check the events calendar for more info.

Fitness Day

Work out with the Athletics Department! They'll be showing off their offerings and answering questions about the personal training program. Plus, Psychological and Health Services will be there to discuss stress management and proper nutrition. Get your fitness on in the Library Quad from 11 a.m.-1 p.m. on May 25.

Theatre Arts Presents Suburban Undertow

Don't miss the world premiere of Suburban Undertow, running for one weekend only at the Lohman Theatre! A tight group of friends have a standing Friday night appointment, but their friendship is challenged as each character weighs their loyalty. The drama ensues from May 25-May 28. Get tickets at foothill.edu.

A large digital screen displays the words "MEMORIAL DAY" in bold, white, sans-serif letters. The letters are partially obscured by a grid pattern that resembles the American flag's stars and stripes. Below the main text, a smaller section reads "Memorial Day" and provides information about the college being closed on May 29 for the holiday.

Memorial Day
Foothill will be closed on May 29 in honor of Memorial Day. Online services will be available. Enjoy the long weekend!

Vote in the ASFC Elections and You Could Win A Laptop

Your voice and your vote matter! Help pick the new leaders of the Associated Students of Foothill College. Voting is open May 1-4. Vote by 2 p.m. on May 4 and you'll be entered to win a new Macbook. To vote, go to MyPortal, click "Campus Events," select "FH Student Voting," then select the ballot and vote for your candidates.

Get Discounts with Your Owl Card

Show your OwlCard student ID to get great discounts in the cafeteria, Design Center and Smart Shop, as well as reduced admission to Foothill theatre performances and athletic events, and discounted movie tickets. To get your OwlCard, visit the Smart Shop (room 2016).

Need help? Visit the Teaching & Learning Center

Don't stress about midterms – get help in the Teaching & Learning Center! TLC offers free one-on-one tutoring sessions for all classes and group workshops on different study skills. Visit foothill.edu/tlc for more info or call 650.949.7444.
