

Using Perkins Funds to Supplement and Improve CTE Courses

The state provides Perkins categorical funding for specific work- and industry-based objectives. This chart will help you identify ways to use Perkins dollars to supplement your programs. Funds must be spent by June 30 each year. Visit foothill.edu/workforce for more info.

THE OBJECTIVE	HOW TO ACHIEVE
 Ensure you and your program are up to industry standards	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Procure lab equipment & technology • Attend conferences & professional development • Use client or patient management software • Organize in-service training for faculty
 Design courses for industry standards and for distance learning	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Pay full-time and part-time faculty for instructional and non-instructional program development • Incorporate technology into the classroom
 Train faculty on software and technology to engage in remote instruction	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Facilitate training on Canvas, Zoom, or any other remote instruction
 Transition students from school to work	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Engage employers through job fairs, industry workshops, and host guest speakers • Use certification prep materials • Promote work-based experience learning
 Increase recruitment of underserved populations to promote industry diversity	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Utilize videos, radio advertising, social media and other marketing tools • Attend equity seminars and training
 Use data-based evaluation for program improvement	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Hire consultants to conduct analysis on equity gaps, outreach effectiveness, and student performance outcomes in comparison to industry standards